CITY OF LANCASTER.

THURSDAY, September 17, 1863.

"THE Union—It must, and shall be preserved!" Andrew Jackson.

"LIBERTY and Union—now and forever, one and inseparable!"—Daniel Webster.

"If I am asked when I am for a dissolution of the Union, I answer, Never!"—Henry Clay.

ment, country or no country."—Stephen A. Douglas.

MEETING OF THE UNION CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

The Union Central Committee will meet at the Gazette Office, on SATUR-DAY MORNING, SEPT. 19, at 10 o'clock.

A full attendance is especially and earnestly urged as there is important business to transact. By order.

ANOTHER GRAND UNION MASS MEETING AT LANCASTER, On Wednesday, Oc- tober 7th, 1863.

It gives us the greatest pleasure to announce that

GEN. THOMAS FRANCIS MEAGHER,

The brilliant Irish orator and late commander of the splendid Irish Brigade of the Army of the Potomac, will address the people of Fairfield county, AT LANCASTER, ON WEDNES-DAY, OCTOBER 7th.

Gen. MEAGHER is the most gallant, eloquent and distinguished Irish soldier and orator in the United States.
He has ever been the firm friend of our foreign-born citizens, and the brave defender of their rights and liberties.
Let the people of this and the surrounding counties, and especially the foreign-born citizens, come out by thousands and hear him.

Other speakers will be in attendance, whose names will be announced hereafter.

To Correspondents.
Correspondents should bear in mind that we do not publish communications unless we know the name of the author.

Communications are often sent to us on which two rates of postage are charged, when only one is paid. It is our rule to take such letters out of the office.

Our friend E. C. KALB, of Rushville, sends us a new subscriber or two every week. We commend him to our friends as whole-souled Union man whose example is worthy of imitation.

To Advertisers.
The Gazette has a circulation of sixteen hundred. A word to advertisers is sufficient.

Thanks to Mr. Baldwin.
On behalf of the Central Committee and the loyal people of this county, we tender to Mr. John Baldwin, the thanks of Union men, for his generosity in placing his grove at the service of the 25,000-people Mass Meeting of last week.

Copperhead Outrage at New Salem.

We learn that on last Friday evening a Butternut meeting, addressed by Dr. Olds, was held at New Salem.
It was attended, as usual, by all the rowdies and bullies of the surrounding country. After the meeting a boy, only about seventeen years of age, brother to C. M. L. Wiseman, of this city, was attacked by about forty row-dies, led by two or three Indian Creek bullies and most outrageously beaten. The only offense of the boy was wearing a soldier's cap.— They first knocked the cap off, and then knocked the boy down, and stamped his front teeth out, and were only prevented from killing him by the noble conduct of Dr. Yontz, who got the boy out of the hands of the wild beasts and assisted him to his office. Dr. Yontz says he would have been killed in ten minutes.

After the attack upon young Wiseman the rowdies saw on the opposite side of the street, a returned soldier, who had been in Libby Prison and had lately arrived at home sick and emaciated.— They rushed toward the soldier, shouting, "There's another of the blue breaches," and would no doubt have beaten him to death had he not dodged them and made his escape by running.

The only offense of these boys was that one of them wore a soldier's cap, and the other was a soldier. What are the feelings of a soldier, after having suffered in the field and in the prisons of the enemy, to return home and receive such a welcome?

Go to Billingshurst's, and get Peterson's Magazine, and all the other Magazines.

Brigadier General Hugh B. Ewing.
General Ewing is in the city at present visiting his family and friends.— He will be honored as one of those who participated in the brilliant campaign which resulted in the capture of Vicksburg.

The Ohio Conference.

The Ohio Conference of the M. E.
Church, which met in this city on the 9th, adjourned on Monday night, the 14th. We attended several of the daily sessions of this patriotic and devoted body of Christian ministers, and from what we have seen of legislative bodies, we think that legislators might come to this body to learn lessons of dignity, of prompt and wise dispatch of business, and of manly and unselfish discharge of duty.

We invite the attention of our readers to the resolutions adopted by this body on the state of the country, to be found on our first page. They are exceedingly well-written, and breathe the genuine spirit of Christian sympathy for a Christian cause and government, and for our gallant and suffering soldiers, and, are, besides, sufficiently to the point on minor issues to leave no doubt of their meaning nor of the position of the Conference.

The case of the Rev. Mr. Given was referred to a committee to be appointed by the Presiding Elder of his district, which is the course indicated by the discipline of the church, and his character was passed by the Conference, subject to the decision of the committee. This leaves Mr. Given for the present without any charge. The Conference totally disclaimed the issue which Mr. Given attempted to thrust upon it, viz: that his political sentiments were the ground of objection. The only ground on which the Conference entertained his case was that of unacceptability, no charge being willing to accept his services.

UNION MASS MEETING AT GROVE-PORT.

There will be a Grand Union Mass Meeting and Barbecue at GROVE-PORT, on next SATURDAY, SEPT.
19th, 1863.

UNION MEETING AT DUMONTVILLE.

There will be a Union Meeting at DUMONTVILLE, on Tuesday Evening, September 22d, 1863.

J. D. MARTIN, Esq., and R. M.
CLARKE will address the meeting.

Dr. T. O. Edwards.

We are gratified to announce that Dr. Edwards has returned to Lancaster, after a long absence, to engage in his profession. We copy the following high tribute to his professional skill from the Hocking Sentinel. Some of our readers will remember the recent frightful accident by which Dr. Dalton, of Logan, had his skull fractured and several of his limbs broken:

"We are gratified to be able to state that Dr. Dalton continues to improve, and is considered out of all danger.— We doubt not, this gratifying condition of the Doctor, is mainly owing to the scientific skill, medical knowledge, experience and care of Dr. Edwards, to whom the many friends of Dr. Dalton, owe a debt of gratitude which they will not be slow in paying if opportunity offers. We cannot but envy any community the citizenship of a man of such skill, medical knowledge and sound judgment as Dr. Edwards has proven himself to be in the management of the complicated and dangerous fractures, wounds and bruises which jeopardized the life of Dr. Dalton for some days after the terrible accident which caused them happened. Among the many Physicians who called to see Dr. Dalton, we believe there was not one thought it hardly possible for him to recover, yet under the blessing of Providence and the care of Dr. Edwards, he passed all points of danger, and bids fair to soon be able to go among his friends, an invalid through the remainder of his days."

SILAS H. WRIGHT.

Mt. Editor: The man whose name heads this paragraph is, I believe, a candidate for State Senator from this District, and asks the suffrages of loyal citizens to elect him to that, at present, more than ever, responsible trust, and yet this same Silas H. Wright did, publicly, in the principal street of the town of Logan, in the month of April, 1861, proclaim the following:
"Before I would join this d—d abolition war, and fight against the South, I would wrap the Stars and Stripes around my" (the closing words of his proclamation cannot appear in public print, but must be left to the imagination of the reader.) For this utterance the loyal citizens of Logan came near mobbing him, and were only restrained by the entreaties of his friends.

Now, sir, as much as I have seen that was strange to me; and as much as I have questioned the mysteries of man's mentality for a solution of his vagrancies; and though I am still prepared to witness strange things; yet, before God, I am not prepared to believe that my fellow-citizens will elevate to the lawmaking department one who thus publicly gloried in insulting our national flag.

BENONI STEWART, Esq., of Canal Winchester, will accept our thanks for five new subscribers. Keep the ball rolling. The way to take Fairfield county out of the hands of the enemies of the Government and of the Christian Church, is to give the Gazette a wide circulation.

Juvenile Visionary Ephepheral Fashion.

Has again thrown up three columns full of Handy Andy material into the Eagle. Mr. Pshaw is angry at the Rev.
Mr. Van Anda, because, some time ago, Mr. Van Anda refused to enter into a quarrel with him. He therefore gets behind Mr. Van Anda's back, like a bad boy; and makes ugly faces and calls him dreadful names. He holds that a minister who advises his congregation to sustain the government isn't preaching the gospel at all, at all; and that he (Mr. O'Pshaw) is a perfect pink and prominent pattern of piety. Therefore he stands from week to week firing his pop-gun at ministers and christians.— He reminds us of a little boy named Milgenwater of whom we once read in a parody upon Hiawatha. Milgenwa-ter spent his days firing an arrow with a pin in it, at the birds. At which all the birds laughed, and advised Milgen-water to

"Don't you shoot at your arrows with a pin in 'em, Milgenwater?"

Mr. O'Pshaw, to show his own piety, and to—amuse Mr. Van Anda, uses the Catechism. Let us catechise Mr.
O'Pshaw:

Did you not, Mr. O'Pshaw, at the time you joined the Methodist Church say that you did so not because you needed the help of the Church but because of the great influence it would have upon the community?

Did not the men with whom you associate and act, desecrate the Sabbath, disturb a religious meeting at Amanda, and insult the minister on the cars?

Did not the men with whom you associate and act, at a political meeting held by the Rev. Mr. Given on the 2d inst., gather around, insult, strike, and abuse the Rev. Mr. Vandemark, for no other offence than taking a few notes of Mr. Given's so-called sermon?

Do not the officers of the county whom you support, and whose duty it is to preserve the peace, drag drunken men through the street cursing louder than the drunken man, and do they not at political meetings and elsewhere openly banter men to fight, and thus disturb the peace instead of preserving it?

Do not the men with whom you associate and act, gather on the Sabbath in front of the saloons and make the day hideous by drinking and by profanity?

Did not your political friends while they cried "free press" mob the Gazette office and expel a newspaper reporter from a public meeting?

Did not your political friends, at a meeting held at New Salem, on last Friday night, beat a young man for wearing a soldier's cap, and drive a sick boy through the streets for no other offence than being a brave soldier who had fought to defend your life and property?

Answer these questions, Mr. O'Pshaw, and then stop your puerile attacks upon your superiors.

Dr. Olds Stirring up Resistance to the General Government. To Vote for Olds is to vote for Civil War.

Dr. Olds, the man who was convicted by the testimony of his own friends of discouraging enlistments and opposing the government and for which he was arrested and detained in Fort Lafayette, is again loose among the people stirring up resistance to the government. He is now canvassing Fairfield county for the Vallandigham ticket.— In a speech delivered last week at Dun's Grove, in Amanda township, and also in a speech delivered at New Salem, on last Friday evening, Dr. Olds said in substance:

"In all probability Vallandigham will be elected Governor of Ohio, and, if elected, Abraham Lincoln will try to prevent his inauguration. Will you go with the militia to bring him home? [Voices—"We will," "we will."] And if Abraham Lincoln attempts to prevent his return, will you bring Vallandigham home at the point of the bayonet? [Cries of "we will,"
"we will!"] Is this the voice of the people? [Cries of "It is!" "It is!"]

We can prove, by the most respectable and reliable men, that these were nearly the exact words of Dr. Olds.

How much longer will the people trust this disloyal demagogue? Cannot the honest people understand that Dr. Olds' chief desire is to have revenge upon the Administration for his arrest, and that to obtain this he is working day and night to array the State of Ohio against the General Government?

Men of Fairfield! if you have your own interest and the interest of your country at heart, trust him not. He will urge you into rebellion and plunge you into bloodshed and ruin, and then desert you, like the notorious Fernando Wood during the New York riots, and the infamous Leadbetter during the Holmes county insurrection.

Parson BROWNLOW, the bold defier and holy hater of rebels, goes back to Knoxville to establish a new journal.
He has issued the following Prospectus:

Brownlow's Knoxville Whig and Rebel Ventilator.

I propose to publish a weekly and tri-weekly journal, bearing the above title, at Knoxville, in East Tennessee; and the weekly paper, made up from the contents of the tri-weeklies, I propose to send out to distant subscribers for Two DOLLARS per annum, invariably paid in advance. Subscriptions and remittances will be forwarded to me at Cincinnati, from which point I expect to ship my paper and materials. I expect to issue the first number in October, as it was in that month, two years ago, my paper was crushed out by the God-forsaken mob at Knoxville, called the Confederate Authorities. I will commence with this hell-born and hell-born rebellion, where the traitors forced me to leave off, and all who wish the paper would do well to begin with the first issue, as I intend that single paper shall be worth the subscription price to any unconditional Union man!

In the rule of my editorial conduct, I shall adhere that servility which destroys the independence of the press and cast from that factious opposition which gives to party what is due to country. And while the name of my journal indicates, in unmistakable terms, its politics, I shall, as a faithful sentinel, forget Whigs, Democrats, Know Nothings and Republicans, and remember only Government, and the preservation of the Federal Union—as richly worth all the sacrifices of blood and treasure their preservation may cost—even to the extermination of the present race of men, and the consumption of all the means of the present age!

Publishers inserting this Prospectus once, prominently, and sending me the paper to Cincinnati, will be favored with an exchange.

HOW TO ESCAPE THE DRAFT

The art and best opportunity to Avoid the Draft

Recruits Wanted for the 12th Ohio Cavalry.

GOVERNOR TOD HAS BEEN AUTHORIZED BY the Secretary of War to raise a Regiment of Cavalry in Ohio, to serve three years or during the war, and to be complete within thirty days. The Regiment is intended for the Southern border of Ohio, where its principal service will be to guard the border from being invaded by the rebels. The public interest demand that the best opportunity which will be presented to escape the draft, and if a company of recruits is entirely. This branch of the service is the most
